

Lot Adornment and Memorial Regulations*

The City has provided ways for families to honour their loved ones with a variety of ornamentation and memorial options.

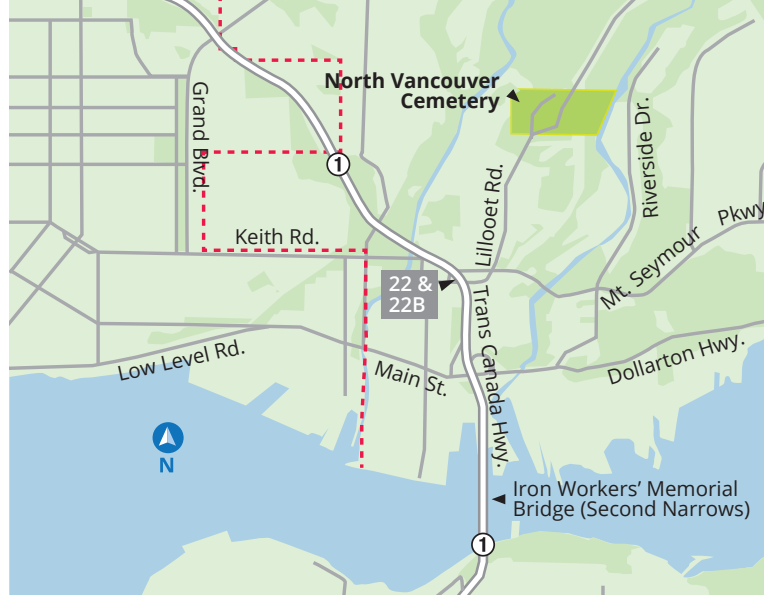

Acceptable Items:

- Fresh flowers
- Artificial flowers in a City installed in-ground vase
- Small, potted plant on memorial marker
- Memorials that conform to current regulations

Unacceptable Items:

- Objects made of glass or ceramic
- Wooden or metal objects
- Rocks or gravel
- Fencing or railing
- Hedging
- Netting
- Candles, lanterns and solar lamps
- Food items
- Any object placed on the ground
- Planting or digging anything into the ground

The City is not responsible for the maintenance or preservation of any lot adornment. Items deemed unacceptable may be removed by staff. Any or all items may be removed for regular maintenance or Cemetery operations.

North Vancouver Cemetery

'Ascending Faith' by John Marston

How to Get There

Trans Canada Highway 1, Northbound:

Take Exit 22B, move to the centre lane before proceeding through the intersection northbound on Lillooet Road past Capilano University.

Trans Canada Highway 1, Southbound:

Take Exit 22 and follow the signs towards Lillooet Road/Capilano University. Proceed through the intersection northbound on Lillooet Road past Capilano University.

Hours of Operation

September 7th – April 7th: 8am - 4pm

April 8th – September 6th: 8am - 8pm

A caretaker is onsite daily from 8am - 4pm excluding statutory holidays.

*Complete details available in the North Vancouver Cemetery Bylaw at City Hall or at cnv.org/Cemetery

Since 1907, the North Vancouver Cemetery has served Residents of the North Shore

Nestled below the majestic North Shore mountains, the Cemetery is a special place of remembrance, history and beauty. It is a treasured space where people take time to reflect and reconnect with nature.

The Cemetery is approximately 22 acres in size and lies on a 62-acre parcel of land located at the north end of Lillooet Road.

Interment options at the Cemetery include columbaria niches, in-ground cremation space and in-ground burial space.

Do you Know about the City's Parks and Greenways Donation Program?

Consider commemorating a loved one with a beautiful bench and plaque. A site map and catalogue are available at cnv.org/ParksDonationProgram

For more information contact the Engineering, Parks & Environment Department at 604 983 7333.

North Vancouver Cemetery

1700 Lillooet Road

Cemetery Services Coordinator:

T: 604 983 7351

Email: cemetery@cnv.org

Appointment recommended

