

Office of the Mayor

CITY OF NORTH VANCOUVER
BRITISH COLUMBIA

Proclamation

HERITAGE WEEK

Whereas

through the passage of time and memory, cultural heritage endures and is conveyed through ideas, language, structures and artistry;

Whereas

the City of North Vancouver encourages engagement and learning about the diverse cultural heritage of our community, including historical and ongoing contributions of the Coast Salish peoples and Squamish and Tsleil-Waututh Nations;

Whereas

MONOVA (Museum & Archives of North Vancouver) joins culture and heritage organizations across British Columbia by hosting events and activities to celebrate our community's heritage;

And Whereas

Heritage BC's 2025 theme, "Pastimes in Past Times," highlights historical leisure activities and their impact on modern culture;

Now Therefore

I, Linda Buchanan, Mayor of the City of North Vancouver, do hereby proclaim February 17 to 23, 2025 as Heritage Week in the City of North Vancouver, the traditional territories of the Squamish and Tsleil-Waututh Nations.

So proclaimed on Monday, February 17, 2025

Linda C. Buchanan

Mayor Linda Buchanan
